

State of Texas $\frac{3}{3}$ In County Court County of Travis $\frac{3}{3}$ before me on the 1st day of August 1876.

To the Honorable County Court of Harrison County Texas.

The petition of Mrs Leila Jane Blair a female who is a resident citizen of the County of Harrison and State of Texas respectfully represents that petitioner is the surviving widow of John Blair deceased who was a soldier in the army of Texas between the 1st day of January A.D. 1836 and the 1st day of January A.D. 1837, and that for said services the said John Blair was granted a pension by the State of Texas under the former law, all of which more fully appears by the Exhibit A hereto attached and made a part of this petition. That petitioner since her marriage with the said John Blair has never subsequently intermarried, but remained with him as his wife until his death and now survives him as his widow. That petitioner is in indigent circumstances all of which more fully appears by the Exhibit A hereto attached and made a part of this petition, and unable to provide herself with the actual necessities of life, and that by reason of her being the surviving widow of the said John Blair deceased and her said circumstances
